Paweł Jarski
CEO

Dear All,

Elemental Holding started its business activity in 2010, which was the time when green ideas began to develop on a large scale in the European Union and the recycling of waste electrical and electronic equipment and recovery of metals was the subject of all the time increasing interest. We grasped the enormous opportunities brought by the dynamic economic development of Poland, integration with the European Union and new global trends in environmental protection. We grew stronger, deriving benefits from our employees' knowledge, creativity and commitment, we expanded cooperation to include new partners successively joining the Elemental Holding Capital Group, noticing the potential for further development of our companies in the synergy offered. We believed, to paraphrase the Norwegian traveler Thor Heyerdahl, that borders existed somewhere, but we did not see any, only heard that they existed in the minds of some people. Nowadays, we are a company with global reach, whose business significantly contributes to counteracting the climate change. Our goal is to become a global leader in the recycling of spent automotive catalysts (SAC), a European leader in the recycling of printed circuit boards (PCB) and lithium-ion (Li-ion) batteries, as well as to strengthen the position of our Group as a regional leader in the segment of waste electrical and electronic equipment (WEEE) recycling. In the pursuit of this goal, we consistently implement cutting-edge technologies in our plants, improve management processes, expand waste sourcing network and increase skills of our team. In the Elemental Holding Capital Group, we connect employees from various cultural circles, from different countries and even continents. We believe that we all share the values we follow and that diversity contributes to the growth of our development potential. The Code of Ethics of the Elemental Holding Capital Group presents standards that every employee and associate of our organization, as well as our business partners, should be guided by. We expect that all activities, both internal and external, undertaken by companies from the Capital Group and their employees will comply with commonly applicable laws, principles of social coexistence and customs established in the countries in which we operate. Effective implementation of the principles of environmental responsibility in our organization is of fundamental importance to us. We believe in social responsibility, expressed through respect for human rights and employee rights as well as involvement in social life of local communities.

The Code of Ethics is dedicated to all members of corporate bodies of the Capital Group companies, senior management, employees, associates and our business partners. Cooperation with our organization means accepting it and taking a commitment to follow and apply it. The Code needs to be read as a prerequisite for establishing and continuing cooperation. We expect all the principles and guidelines set out in this document to be applied in our day-to-day operations. In the event of exceptional events, unforeseen in our rules, the Code should be used as a compass to make interpretation in the spirit of values important to us.

Your faithfully,

elemental

our values

Honesty and responsibility

The price of greatness is responsibility.

Winston Churchill

We operate in a unique market segment. We are lucky. The more efficient we are in taking care for the preservation of natural resources and activities aimed at environmental protection, the better our business develops. We grow stronger by protecting what is the most important to humanity and will allow it to survive. Only the transparency of processes taking place in our organization, honesty towards our partners and associates proves that we are responsible for the community which we create and in which we live, as well as for the preservation of a green world that we would like to see as a place of life for future generations.

Respectful partnership

Being oneself is the condition for a reliable dialogue, since our interlocutors are able to sense whether we represent ourselves or whether we use elements of rhetoric and games, i.e. tactic. Obviously, the tactic is a widely accepted practice, but it cannot dominate the case and goodwill.

Władysław Bartoszewski

We have built our Organization relying on family businesses, committed employees and competent managers. We believe that trust in people, a shared goal and mutual respect allow us to overcome the greatest difficulties and foster innovation and creativity, because as Lee Iacocca, one of the most famous American managers said, "The key to success is not information. It's people."

Development

Development is an inherent part of the DNA of our Organization. We keep looking for innovative solutions and implement cutting edge technologies in our plants. We invite dynamic organizations, leaders on domestic markets and top specialists in the industry to our Capital Group. Hand in hand with them, drawing from our common knowledge and experience, we are heading towards the limits of our possibilities. Luckily for all of us, we still cannot see any such limits.
